

DRAFT – NO CHANGE**

4121-3-17 Briefs.

- (A) Parties may, of their own volition, file briefs with the bureau or commission on legal questions presented in claims.
- (B) The bureau or commission may require parties to file briefs on legal questions presented in claims. The hearing officer shall fix a time certain for the filing of such briefs allowing a reasonable time for preparation.
- (C) In either instance, the submitted briefs shall be legibly typewritten on paper not exceeding eight and one-half inches by eleven inches in size and filed without a protective cover. The party filing a brief shall furnish a copy to the opposite party at the time that the brief is filed with the bureau or the commission. If the brief is directed to a matter before the bureau, the brief shall be filed with the bureau. If the brief is directed to a matter before the commission, the brief shall be filed with the commission.